What's this monthly Bible reading plan all about?

Savoring God's seasonal elegance. The Scripture passages are focused on waiting on God. How to wait, why we wait, and God's love through the wait.

Everything Beautiful is about focusing the eyes of our hearts on the beauty of each season of life.

In the 21st book of the Old Testament, Ecclesiastes, Solomon, known as the wisest who ever lived, wrote this sermon in his older years. His reflections on life and its meaning provide both practical and inspiring tips for every day. Specifically, Ecclesiastes chapter 3 has captured the attention of many readers and scholars alike. That is because it unfolds the the mysteries of the one commodity we cannot gain more of- time.

God has made everything beautiful. There is no question about that. But what I love so much about the verse above is that phrase "in its time." Folks, there are ugly times in life. In fact, one of mine comes every morning when I attempt to wake up, with messy hair and half-open eyes. The interesting part of discovering beauty in life is that we have to be aware of the season. Beauty doesn't look the same to everyone at all times, right?

This month's Bible reading challenge is to discover and focus on beauty in God's Word and in our lives. Whether indoors or out, let's find beauty "in its time" right where we are.
